

Charles River Laboratories Announces $150 Million Offering of Senior Convertible Debentures

January 15, 2002

WILMINGTON, Mass., Jan 15, 2002 (BW HealthWire) -- Charles River Laboratories International, Inc. (NYSE: CRL) today announced its intention, subject to market and other conditions, to offer in a private placement approximately $150 million in Senior Convertible Debentures. The Debentures, due in 2022, will be convertible into shares of Charles River's common stock. Charles River has granted the initial purchasers of the Debentures an option to purchase up to an additional $25 million principal amount of Debentures, exercisable within 13 days of the initial offering. Charles River intends to use the net proceeds from the Debenture offering to retire its wholly-owned subsidiary's (Charles River Laboratories, Inc.) $79.7 million aggregate principal amount of 13.5% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2009, through a tender offer and consent solicitation, and for general corporate purposes. The offering is being made only to qualified institutional buyers in accordance with Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933.

Neither the Debentures nor the common stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, or any state securities laws. Unless so registered, the Debentures and the common stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures may not be offered or sold in the United States absent an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws. This announcement is neither an offer to sell nor a solicitation of an offer to buy any of these securities.
